

Give a gift of hope! Gulf Coast Recovery

Katrina. Rita. Wilma. Hurricanes that ravaged parts of the U.S. Gulf Coast this past year.

Church World Service is there in the hurricanes' aftermath, with more than Volunteers distributing CWS Blankets to Hurricane Katrina survivors. CWS emergency supplies are making a difference in Gulf Coast relief and recovery — as they have in the tsunami recovery and other emergency responses worldwide.

$1.5 million in tools of hope — including blankets, Emergency Clean-up Buckets, medical supplies, and Health, School, and Kids Kits — to assist uprooted families and individuals.

Along with cash seed grants to local long-term recovery groups, CWS is supporting trauma care for both survivors and caregivers, and is assisting families and individuals who have relocated to new areas.

Make your alternative gift this holiday a gift of hope, a gift of long-term recovery. The needs are great. So are the opportunities to help.

- Four warm blankets... $20*
- Emergency bucket filled with cleaning supplies... $45
- Five health kits for personal hygiene needs... $60
- Cash donations for long-term recovery... Priceless!

*The prices shown here reflect the average cost of providing these items to families and communities in need. CWS works to advance overall community development. Your gift is a contribution to the entire CWS TOOLS & BLANKETS Program.
